

WINDS OF CHANGE: MAKING INTEGRATED CARE HAPPEN
 International Summer School on Integrated Care 2019
 WOLFSON COLLEGE, OXFORD Sunday 23rd June to Friday 28th June

Time	Sunday, 23/6	Monday 24/6	Tuesday 25/6	Wednesday 26/6	Thursday 27/6	Friday 28/6
09.00 - 10.30		Introducing concepts I Understanding integrated care - introducing the meaning and logic of integrated care and its guiding frameworks Implementing integrated care programmes - explaining the core steps for achieving implementation success (Nick Goodwin - IFIC)	Building an enabling environment I Integrated care 'at scale' -examining how to achieve integrated care 'at scale' and the Scirocco's Maturity Model (Toni Dedeu - IFIC, Donna Henderson - IFIC, Andrea Pavlickova - SCIROCCO Exchange Project)	08.00 - Bus to site visit from Linton Lodge	GROUP WORK Delegates work together to reflect upon what they have learned in the course to take a structured approach to the future design of their selected case studies and integrated care programme	GROUP WORK Delegates work together to prepare a short presentation outlining their strategic plans for their group's integrated care programme to be 'pitched' to a 'Dragon's Den' of expert in integrated care
Coffee break		Coffee break	Coffee break		Coffee break	Coffee break
11.00 - 12.30		Empowering people I Engaging and empowering people and communities - examining how integrated care needs to be people-centred and community-focused as a means to improve both care experiences and care outcomes (Don Redding - National Voices)	Introducing Concepts III Leading Integrated Care and supporting personal development - an interactive session supporting delegates to understand what it takes to become an effective colleague and leader in the integrated care environment (Mandy Andrew - IFIC Senior Associate)		Building an enabling environment III -A presentation on different performance assessment measures for integrated care (Ellen Nolte - London School of Economics)	DRAGON'S DEN An interactive exchange with expert informants focusing on how to make integrated care happen within the context of each group's integrated care programme
Lunch		LUNCH	LUNCH		LUNCH	LUNCH
14.00 - 15.30		GROUP WORK In groups, delegates choose specific country case studies from their own contexts through which to explore implementation challenges and solutions	Building an enabling environment II Designing and organizing services for integrated care - A discussion on how to achieve continuity of care in service delivery (Anne Hendry - IFIC Scotland) Quick check in with Groups		Building and enabling environment III -A presentation on different models of financing integrated care and how to create incentives for integrated care (Apostolos Tsiachristas - Oxford University)	Round Table Discussion - A discussion about what participants have learned and what lessons and actions they will take home Course evaluation and feedback
Coffee break		Coffee break	Coffee break		Coffee break	Closing ceremony
16.00 - 17.30	18.00 Welcome and orientation (including welcome drink)	Introducing concepts II Change Management and Leadership in Integrated Care - exploring the evidence and first hand experiences of implementing integrated care, this session seeks to debate with key experts how change may be achieved and the role of leaders and leadership (led by Nick Goodwin, IFIC) Leading innovation and Change -Hearing first hand from the experiences of leading change in the Welsh Health System Helen Howson (Bevan Academy)	Empowering people II Collaborating across professional and sectoral boundaries - developing competencies in integrated care - understanding cultures and building common values (Robin Miller - University of Birmingham) Quick check in with Groups		GROUP WORK Delegates work together to create a value case (business case) for their group's integrated care programme and work this into a strategic plan of action.	Departure
Evening Programme		18.30 Oxford walking tour (optional)	18.30 Seminar: Integrated Care in England (Nick Goodwin- IFIC) 19.00 Dinner at Wolfson College	18.00 Dinner and excursion to St.Albans 20.00 Return to Oxford	Evening at leisure	