Description: Located in the heart of Lisbon and in front of the largest urban park in the city, Parque Eduardo VII, the HF Fénix Garden has vast, colourful and luminous areas.

The surroundings invite you to a natural space, with decorative motifs and bright colours that contrast with the rest of the decor. And because this is a hotel inspired by nature, the concern with the environment is a fundamental principle since its construction. The hotel has solar panels whose production is 100% directed to heating the water of the building, and at breakfast, the priority goes to homemade and local products, although the offer is varied and complete.

Rate: As per website

Description: Located in the centre of Lisbon, on Praça Marquês de Pombal, the HF Fénix Music is a hotel that celebrates music, during every moment of the stay. On the rooftop, the pool refreshes guests on hot days, while they enjoy the panoramic views over the city, from Parque Eduardo VII to the castle of São Jorge and the Tagus river.

You have free wi-fi everywhere in the hotel and can find the Marquês de Pombal metro station only 100 meters away. The staff will be wearing t-shirts and sweatshirts illustrated with music icons, from classic to contemporary ones, that were created by an illustrator from Lisbon exclusively for the hotel, which can also be purchased as a souvenir! The playlists that you can listen to at the hotel, from the entrance to the rooftop, are also the exclusive curatorship of a local DJ. Take them with you anywhere, by simply accessing our Spotify profile.
