A simple way to support the global exchange of knowledge and practice in integrated care.

EVENT
International Conference on Integrated Care (ICIC27)

DATES
10-12 May 2027

VENUE
Alexela Kontserdimaja, Tallinn

CALL FOR PAPERS
14 September–1 November 2026

What is a knowledge partner?

An ICIC27 Knowledge Partner is an organisation or network that helps extend the conference's reach by sharing the Call for Papers and key conference information. The arrangement is practical and reciprocal: your organisation supports wider participation, while IFIC provides recognition and a tangible benefit for your members or network.

What we ask of you

Promote ICIC27 through whichever channels are most appropriate for your audience, including one or more of the following:

- Email newsletters, member bulletins or targeted email campaigns
- A news item or event listing on your website
- LinkedIn, X/Twitter, Facebook, blogs or other social channels
- Cross-promotion through partner organisations and professional networks
- Conference postcards at a relevant event, supplied by IFIC on request

Benefits for your organisation

Greater visibility
Your organisation listed as a Knowledge Partner on the conference website, with logo, link and exhibition-area recognition.

Member value
A 10% registration discount for your members, colleagues or wider network.

Conference presence
Your logo and a profile of up to 100 words in the delegate app, and an opportunity to display literature.

Reciprocal support
Where appropriate, IFIC will seek opportunities to promote your relevant activities.

How to become a knowledge partner

Email Niamh Daly Day to confirm your interest. IFIC will provide the 10% discount code and agree the practical arrangements. Please send a high-resolution logo, your preferred website link and a profile of up to 100 words for the delegate app. EMAIL: niamhdalyday@integratedcarefoundation.org

ICIC27 INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON INTEGRATED CARE
10-12 May 2027
Tallinn, Estonia

About the conference

The International Conference on Integrated Care (ICIC27), in partnership with the International Journal of Integrated Care (IJIC) and the Ministry of Social Affairs of Estonia, will take place at Alexela Kontserdimaja in Tallinn from 10-12 May 2027. Under the theme, "From Integration to Impact - Delivering better outcomes through data, coordination and population health", it will bring together leaders, researchers, practitioners, community representatives, patients and caregivers engaged in integrated health and care.

Conference themes

From Data Silos to Shared Intelligence:
Technology as an Enabler of Integrated Care

Measuring What Matters:
Outcomes, Value and Population Health in Integrated Care Systems

System Resilience Through Integration:
Responding to Public Health Emergencies and Crises

Making the Case for Care Coordination:
Demonstrating Value and System Efficiency in Integrated Care

Call for Papers: 14 September-1 November 2026

The Scientific Committee welcomes abstracts of up to 500 words on research, policy, practice and education related to the conference themes and the 9 Pillars of Integrated Care. Authors should select the pillar most relevant to their submission, recognising that topics may overlap. Accepted abstracts will be published in the International Journal of Integrated Care.

Suggested promotional wording

Call for Papers now open:
ICIC27, Tallinn, 10-12 May 2027
Share your research, policy, practice or education experience with an international audience working to advance integrated care. Abstracts of up to 500 words are invited under the conference theme until Sunday, 1 November 2026.

Suggested calls to action

- Read the Abstract Guidelines from 14 September 2026
- Submit an abstract by Sunday, 1 November 2026
- Visit www.integratedcarefoundation.org for conference information

Partner message Please use your organisation's 10% partner discount code in registration communications once it has been issued by IFIC.
